

Sliding Security Screen Door Lockset and 3-point Kit

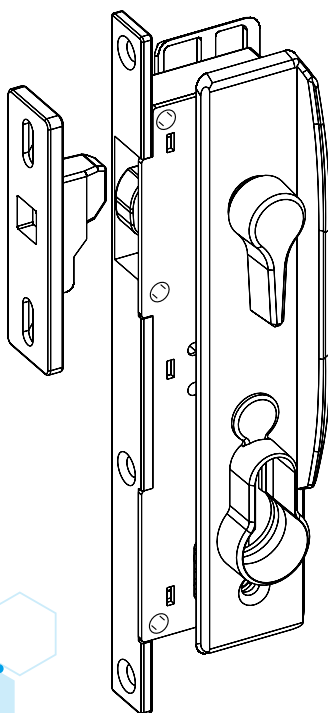

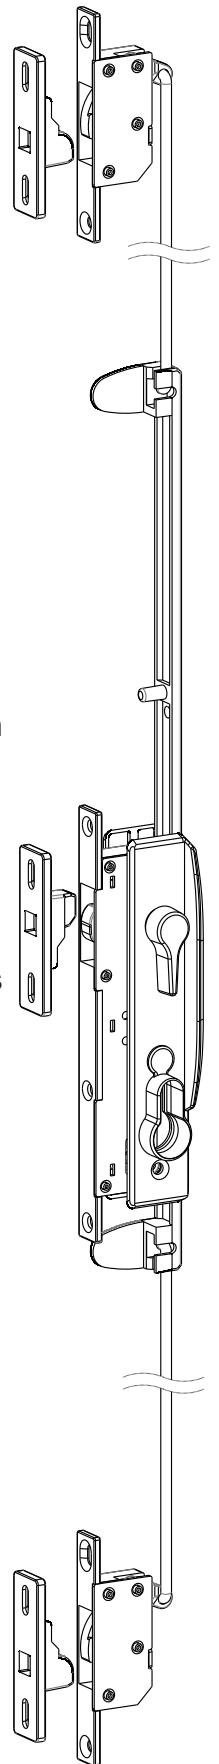

- Installation suitable for industry cut-outs and retrofit to current market products of both central lock and 3-point kit
- Patented design ideas integrated for better reliability, operating feeling and strength with 3 functional modes (Passage, Safety by snib and Secure by key)

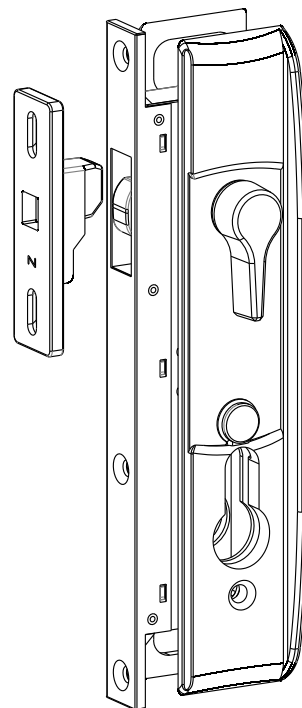

The AST Sliding Security Screen Door Lockset features an innovative mechanism and aesthetic furniture which suits your security need. It creates reliable performance like comparatively low noise, smooth operation and endurance, with required strength for security to support 10 years warranty. Hook bolts/keeper of both central lock and 3-point kit are made of SS304, Furniture is shaped for better pushing/pulling. Available colors including black/white/silver (or others per customer need).

Key Features

- Non-handed furniture to suit both left and right-hand door application
- Retrofit current market products of Sliding security screen door
- Stainless steel hooks/keeper for extra performance of security and corrosion resistance
- Snib function integrated and key overrides snib for security and convenience
- Furniture and main Lock-body parts are made of high strength zinc alloy
- Improved design for less bolt noise from both main-bolt and 3-point kit
- Better material of connecting rods for 3-point kit
- Escutcheon plate is bent for better gripping. Lockset tested for 100K cycles and 240 hrs of NSS per relevant AS standards.

Lockset with square handle set

Lockset with round handle set

Lockset with 3-point kit

